Sir,

Establishment - (temporary) South Kanara District - Loans work - entertainment - B.P.No.Rt.1500, dated 31st March 1924.

In consequence of the disbandment from 1st April of the entire temporary loan staff working in the -------- District, all the applications pending with the Special -- Tahsildar referred to in my letter Ref.C.4295-23-A7, dated 26th March 1924 have been transferred to the Divisional -- officers and Tahsildars concerned for disposal with ------ instructions to submit proposals, if necessary, for the -- entertainment of Special Revenue Inspectors and clerks --- according to the scale prescribed in the Takkavi Manual. The Tahsildar of Mangalore now reports that he has ------- received 52 applications from the Special Tahsildar in --- accordance with the above arrangement, that 5 applications are already pending with him, and proposes the entertainment of one Special Revenue Inspector and one clerk in --- order to dispose of the applications quickly. The ------ Divisional officer supports the proposal. I am accordingly entertaining for one month, in anticipation of sanction, the Special Revenue Inspector who was lately ousted from Special duty and the clerk who was attached to the ---- Special Tahsildar on a pay of Rs.35/- per mensem and I request that my action may be approved.

Your obedient servant,

For Collector.

Establishment - (temporary) South Kanara District - Loans work - entertainment - My letter Ref.C.No.4019-24-B3 dated 5th April 1924.

Note 2 to Rule XIV of the Takkavi Manual, while --- specifically authorising the entertainment of Special ---- Revenue Inspectors, in anticipation of sanction, does not authorise the entertainment of peons. In the absence of any specific authorisation, I feel doubtful whether peons can be entertained. I therefore solicit the Board's ---- orders whether, if a Special Revenue Inspector is sanctioned, the sanction conveys authority to appoint a peon also.

Sir,

The period of the employment for one month of the Special Revenue Inspector and the clerk recommended to the Government by the Board in its above reference (1) expires on the 30th instant. The Tahsildar of Mangalore under whom the Special Loans staff is working, reports that 116 loan applications have been already received by him, that of these, 39 have been disposed of, that 77 applications are pending and that fresh applications are being received daily. There will, I consider, be ample work for the special staff for the next two months. I recommend its retention till the end of June and request the Board to obtain the sanction of Government. 12 above

2. I also request that final orders regarding the rate of interest to be charged on loans, Class I--(Advances to cultivators) may be communicated to me as soon as possible, as in the meantime I am unable to disburse any of the special grant sanctioned for this District.
